DESCRIPTION

This is a cosy, traditional 3-floor stone house whose owners have managed to retain its rustic charm while making it practical and easy to live in. The adjacent grounds of 1,459 m² have been well thought out, landscaped and are now mature; it is a haven where everyone can find their place and their interest, whether thanks to the swimming pool, the covered terrace or the various peaceful nooks and crannies.

The house features a 27m² lounge/dining room with a beautiful country-style fireplace. This is the centrepiece of the house, and can be accessed from the kitchen (9m²), located near the main entrance, or from the first floor via a beautiful staircase from a mezzanine landing, but also directly from the garden, which gives this room a light flow. Moving around the house is easy and pleasant.

The first floor can be accessed from the living room or from a corridor leading to a new shower room with walk-in shower (5.4m²) and toilet (1.9m²).

There are two bedrooms on the first floor and also a third room on this level, that leads through to the master suite, which could be used as an office, extra bedroom or baby's room (9m²).

Finally, under the roof (which is in very good condition) is the master bedroom, which includes a bathroom (9m²), a comfortable lounge (13m²) and the bright 27m² bedroom.

The property has a number of other assets, such as the 9x4,5m swimming pool, which has...
