DESCRIPTION

Are you passionate about large agricultural machines and vibrant country life? Do you dream of working for yourself with the flexibility to choose your hours? This thriving tyre business is the perfect fit for you!

Offering a comprehensive package that includes valuable inventory, modern machinery, a vehicle, and a fully equipped workshop (100m²), this business is already on a solid foundation with established contracts with local councils and a growing clientele.

Designed with efficiency in mind, this workshop operates on low overhead costs and is powered by a generator, with all equipment being less than three years old. The current owner is ready to provide essential training and personal introductions to ensure a smooth transition.

Enjoy the fruits of your labour while working just three days a week, with ample room to expand your services beyond tyres to include other repairs. When it's time to unwind, you're less than five minutes from the charming historic town of Chateauponsac, where you'll find delightful cafes, a supermarket, a vibrant village market, and a convenient gas station.

A lovely renovated house with additional barn is available for separate purchase under Leggett REF A32724ATM87.

For those who love the outdoors, explore the stunning natural park walks, summer beaches, and water sports lakes at Saint-Pardoux-le-Lac, just a short 10-minute drive away. If you crave more urban amenities, Limoges is a mere 30 minutes away, complete with an international airport.
