NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Arriving to the rear of the property, and entering directly into the fitted modern kitchen with wall and base units, tiled walls and floor,

A large spacious salon, with fire place, beamed ceilings and tiled floors. Double aspect windows to the front garden and the rear with the lovely open views, and light pouring in.

A door leads down to the cellar, and there is also a shower room and wc.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, with sloping ceilings, velux windows and neutrally presented, a blank canvas to decorate how you like.

There is a modern family bathroom with tiled walls and floor, Bath with overhead shower and shower screen, a vanity unit with sink and wc.

The property has been well maintained by the vendors, with a conforming drainage system installed recently. Double glazing windows throughout and electric heating.

Outside the property has lockable shutters, and parking to the rear for several cars.

The barn is on two levels, with a second outbuilding attached, and the small stone property to renovate is at the end. It has two floors.

In the garden a large hangar completes the outbuildings.

The gardens are fenced by established trees and bushes, to the rear, and the front is again grassed with large trees.

The property sits on a road with passing traffic throughout the day, though not considered a busy road, it connects to the nearby villages.
