IN BRIEF

Through the main entrance you will step right into the living, which is a spacious room with a fire place and the open plan kitchen next to it. There is plenty of natural light flowing in from both sides of the property. All situated on the ground floor, there are three double bedrooms, two bathrooms (one with a bath, one with a shower) and a lovely dining room with french doors to the garden. You will have plenty of barn-space left, attached and accessible from the inside of the property as well as from the outside. The kitchen has a door to the back garden, where you will find the summer kitchen. The attic has not been converted attic but could double the habitable space.

The flat garden around the property offers mature trees, a well...
