DESCRIPTION

This charming 1950s house offers 166 m² of living space and is ideal for a family.

It has been tastefully renovated, retaining period features such as parquet floors, fireplaces, and a charming staircase.

On the first level, you enter a large entrance hall leading to a spacious 13 m² master bedroom with a 6 m² dressing room and a second 10.5 m² bedroom. This level also features a beautiful 10 m² bathroom with a large window and a toilet.

At the rear of the house, there is a 12.5 m² fitted and equipped kitchen opening onto the 20 m² living room, created in the timber-framed extension completed in 2010, with a large bay window overlooking the terrace, the swimming pool, and the charming garden, as well as the 19 m² dining room. A 12 m² office completes the layout of this level.

You then have the choice of taking one of the two staircases to descend to the lower level, where you'll find two additional bedrooms of 15 and 22 m² and a 5.5 m² bathroom with a toilet.

Finally, for convenience, you also have access to a garage, a laundry room, and a workshop.

This house also features an electric gate for easy parking on a street where free parking is readily available.

Small shops are 300 m away, while supermarkets, schools, colleges, and a clinical center are less than 2 km away. Angoulême city center is less than 10 minutes away.
