IN BRIEF

Village house on the church square opposite the recently restored covered market hall.

This 255m² property, in need of renovation, is located in an historic village very close to the site of the last battle between the English and French, halfway between Saint Emilion, the wine capital and UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the bastide town of Sainte-Foy-la-Grande with its renowned Saturday morning market.

With two front doors, this property could be converted into a main residence and a rental accommodation, comprising 6 bedrooms, 3 living rooms and a kitchen.

The property benefits from an enclosed garden of approximately 170m² and a cellar.
