IN BRIEF

A three bedroom and an older single bedroom house with its own drive entrance at the edge of an ancient hamlet. The property has lovely view across its own garden to fields and woods beyond and is totally unchanged in outline since the cadastre Napoléon of 1835. The property is at least 17th century in parts and has wonderful stone features, is habitable with kitchens, bathrooms, good roofs with solar panels etc, but needs interior redecorating and updating. An exciting project to tackle piece by piece while living onsite.
