NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Entering either through the imposing courtyard of the wine building, or through the car park, where each apartment has its own private parking space, a staircase leads to the first floor of the building, where an exterior walkway overlooking the shared pool of the complex leads to the glazed front door.

Entering either through the imposing courtyard or through the car park, where each apartment has its own private parking space. A staircase leads to the first floor of the building, where an exterior walkway overlooking the shared pool of the complex leads to the two front doors of the apartments.

In the 2-bedroomed apartment, the double-height living room of 36m² with its exposed timber beams, lovely white fitted kitchen and wood burning stove has windows to the east and west. It has a beautiful 9.6m² bedroom and a bathroom of 5.4m², which has a bath and a shower, a WC, bidet and washbasin.

A timber staircase leads up to a landing and a bedroom of 4.1m² and a shower room with WC. The floors are timber boarded, and the doors are solid timber.

Inside the studio, four steps down bring you to the living/sleeping/kitchen area, with coloured floor tiles, timber ceiling beams and full-length sliding glazed doors to open onto the timber-decked sun terrace.

Both the studio and terrace face west. There is a neat shower room in the corner of the room by the compact kitchen. The heating is electric; the yearly copropriété charges were 1678€...
