IN BRIEF

This vast stone house is located at the gateway to the Quercy region, 15 minutes from Gourdon.

This old farmhouse has been restored with spacious living areas, a large dining room/open kitchen of almost 60 m2, and a large living room of 50 m2. Each room has direct access to the outside, so you could imagine an independent business in the living room.

Upstairs, a large landing of over 40 m2 leads to 3 bedrooms (9 m2, 10 m2 and approx. 20 m2), a large dressing room (12 m2) and access to the other part of the garden, at the top of the embankment.

On the kitchen side, you benefit from a small, intimate wooden terrace; the rest of the plot is above the embankment; it's a wooded, relatively sloping plot.

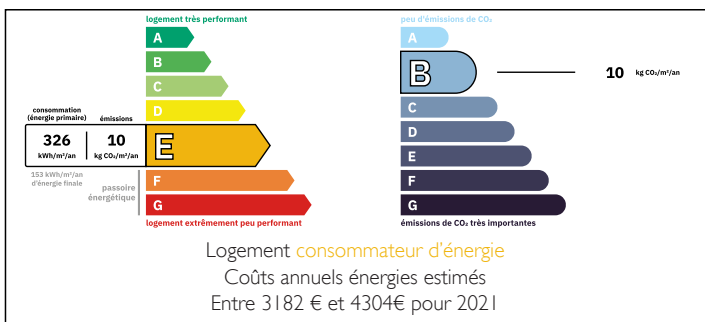

It's a large house with lots of space, but you should...
