IN BRIEF

Located in a lively village near the historic town of Saint-Valéry-sur-Somme, this 200 m² Picardy farmhouse blends authenticity, comfort, rural charm, and conviviality.

Carefully renovated, it offers a warm and inviting interior. Original materials have been preserved and enhanced: exposed beams throughout, fireplaces in the living room and office, traditional terracotta tiles in the kitchen, and converted attic space with four bright, welcoming bedrooms.

The property is set around a 2,800 m² enclosed garden with a hilltop orchard. Outbuildings—including a wattle-and-daub barn, an old henhouse, and a former stable—add to its unique character.

A key feature: the fully restored former dairy, tastefully converted into an independent space, perfect for hosting family and friends or launching a

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

From the entrance, a spacious and inviting 22 m² kitchen, full of authentic charm, sets the tone for the warmth and comfort that define this home.

Continuing this harmonious layout, a bright 26 m² living room, featuring a fireplace and alcoves, offers a refined yet cozy relaxation space.

Designed for easy single-level living, this floor also includes a welcoming bedroom, a 15 m² office and a functional bathroom.

The preserved adjoining former stable remains an extensive rustic space, ideal for storage or conversion into a workshop.

A beautifully restored 22 m² vaulted cellar houses the boiler room with two fuel tanks.

Upstairs, accessible from both sides of the house, four adjoining bedrooms beneath exposed beams and a bathroom have been renovated in a cohesive style, providing a bright, comfortable space ideal for rest and conviviality.

The completely independent annex offers a large, bright, and cozy living area featuring a fireplace and a fully-equipped kitchenette. Upstairs, you'll find a bedroom, a storage space, and a shower room. A spacious terrace allows you to fully enjoy the outdoors.

The old torchis barn with its open section provides a large space to shelter outdoor furniture or a car.

A raised section of the garden, overlooking the property and its enclosed courtyard, creates a delightful retreat amidst a variety of fruit trees and other lush greenery.
