IN BRIEF

A grand old former bishop's residence in need of care to reveal its true potential. Situated in the South of France, on the edge of a small village with a school and restaurant, it has extensive grounds set on the banks of a small stream. Perfect for those seeking a family home in which to live in comfort while working on improvements to other parts of the property.

Many expenses have already been taken care of: new windows and doors, a new low-energy heating system, and improved insulation. With two beautifully renovated reception rooms plus two more to work on, a modern kitchen and bathroom, and five sizeable bedrooms, the main house is comfortable. The barn, workshop, and former housekeeper's apartment all need work to make them habitable but offer huge potential for conversion or as work spaces. Two...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

From the automatic gates, drive into a courtyard with parking for several vehicles.

Enter the house through the front door into a welcoming hall with broad staircase (20m²).

Ahead, access to a fine reception room with restored coffered plaster ceiling and wood panelling, marble fireplace (25m²). Electric roller shutters.

Through further to a second reception room in similar style (28.5m²). Electric roller shutters.

From the entrance hall left into the kitchen which is modern in style, with plenty of storage space (15m²). Beyond is a WC, pantry with laundry point (15m²), small storeroom with water heater and a trap door to the cellar. From the pantry, access to the second reception room.

From the entrance hall, access to a third reception room (25m²) and a fourth arranged as a library (25m²). These two last require work to make them habitable. They have new windows and electric roller shutters, but the floors, walls and ceilings need work.

Halfway up the sweeping wooden stairs is a small room which would be ideal as a shower room/WC. The project has been started but needs work.

First floor

Large landing (15m²).

Two parallel central corridors give access on the left to a double bedroom (12.5m²) with view to courtyard, a spacious bath and shower room with concealed WC (23m²), and on the right to four further, larger bedrooms (23m², 16.7m², 20.5m² and 18.5m²) with a view to the forested hills.

The fourth of these rooms gives access to an attic above (14m²), the tower part of...
