IN BRIEF

In the charming town of Saint Pons de Thomières, former sub-prefecture of the Hérault department, in the heart of the Haut Languedoc Regional Nature Park, you will find this unusual property in an exceptional setting!

In fact, its location in the heart of the town's historic centre is unique! Right next to the cathedral, a former abbey founded in 936 by the Count of Toulouse, our property is located in the basement of a beautiful building housing the famous prehistory museum, whose foundations date back to the construction of the abbey! La Portanelle' and the "Tour Saint Benoit" are in the same building.

Now we've set the scene, and what a scene it is! The premises have a total floor area of 128m2 and 106m2 of living space. The premises are easily accessible and a beautiful covered terrace reserved...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

After strolling through the heart of the town, we took either the fortified pedestrian passage or the main entrance. We found ourselves at the foot of this building steeped in history, and immediately realised that this was the ideal place to set up a hospitality business and make this place an unmissable venue combining culture, wine tasting and music, for example.

a must-see venue combining culture, wine tasting and music, for example. At the same time, it's the kind of place where you immediately want to relax with friends, away from the main road, which is priceless!

If you're a lover of history and stonework, you'll be delighted. The main room, formerly a restaurant, is made entirely of stone and vaulted ceilings and is truly exceptional, measuring 56m²; in the past it could accommodate up to 40 guests! A bar, a toilet area and an 11m² kitchen complete this area, while the second 49m² area can be accessed from the terrace, which is a bonus as it is totally independent, with its shop, storeroom and toilet area. Here, you'll find the same cachet, the same love at first sight, vaulted stonework and incredible charm!

It's easy to see that this magical place is quite simply unique on the market !!!! You're sure to fall in love with this property, so don't delay!

Just an hour from the beaches of the Mediterranean, one of the last localities still affordable in our Languedoc region!
