DESCRIPTION

In the countryside, in the fresh air, in a commune with a fine historical heritage (church, chapel, old railway station, castle) and tourist attractions (hiking trails, lake), this unusual plot of land will appeal to lovers of authentic nature.

The remains of the Palissou mill and its outbuildings have not been maintained for several years and are now ruins. Ideally situated on a one-hectare wooded plot with the River Saint-Bonnette running alongside the property. Numerous hiking trails nearby.

It should be noted that the plot is equipped with water and electricity and that the land has become particularly damp over time and the absence of rainwater drainage means that it will be necessary to think about drainage.

Situated 16km from Marcillac-la-Croisille, 12km from Tulle station and all its amenities, 22km from Argentat-sur-Dordogne and 40km from Brive-la-Gaillarde (airport).
