IN BRIEF

Nestled in the heart of Lussan, one of France's most beautiful medieval villages, this character-filled stone house unfolds over three levels, offering an authentic and enchanting retreat.

An ideal second home, it is easy to lock up and leave, with strong rental potential. The village is perched on a gentle hill with breathtaking views, cobbled streets, and a vibrant yet peaceful atmosphere with restaurants, a post office, and all essential amenities. Just 15 km from Uzès, the village is surrounded by picturesque walking and cycling trails, inviting exploration of the stunning Provençal landscape. With excellent connections, Nîmes (40 km) and Avignon (50 km) offer both TGV stations and airports, making access effortless.
