IN BRIEF

This contemporary house on the outskirts of Mansle, nestling in a hamlet close to the Charente, is a rare find today.

This beautiful 160 m<sup>2</sup> house built in the 2000s sits on a generous plot of over 7000 m<sup>2</sup> and offers an exceptional living environment. With its spacious living/dining room, four bedrooms (three of which are on one level) and two bathrooms, it is ideal for a family or for living with space.

The exposure ensures plenty of sunshine throughout the day, and you can choose to enjoy a superb garden planted with trees or a lovely shady terrace.

Everything about this home invites you to relax: the warm, open-plan interior living space, the uninterrupted views over the countryside, the peaceful surroundings and the opportunity to enjoy walks or cycle rides along the banks of the Charente from the house....
