IN BRIEF

Once fully renovated, this property would make an ideal permanent or holiday home. Renovations have already been started by the current owner with the removal of non weight-bearing walls on the ground floor to allow for open plan living. Upstairs, there are 4 good sized bedrooms, of which one could be converted into a bathroom, as there is already a sink in the room. A basement provides useful storage space, as well as housing the hot water tank, boiler etc. The entrance to the garage has been bricked up but this could be re-opened.

Outside, good sized gardens, backing on to farmland, surround the house, and would make an ideal place for a vegetable garden and the cultivation of fruit trees. A well is a useful water supply for tending this outside space.
