IN BRIEF

The location of this property is idyllic, being on a very quiet country lane with beautiful views towards the Menez Hom, yet being approximately 5 minutes away from the lovely town of Châteaulin, through which meanders the Nantes/Brest Canal, and about 15 minutes away from a stunning beach.

The property has huge potential to make a great family or holiday home. The internal walls of the main house have been removed, giving a 'blank canvas' to configure the accommodation as required. Furthermore, planning permission has been granted to demolish the veranda and extend the property, as well as to convert the dependence into further living space.

To the front of the property, there is a good-sized flower garden, whilst behind the property there is land, which would make an ideal vegetable garden or orchard. The original bread oven remains...
