NOTES

DESCRIPTION

OVERVIEW:

Located in a newly built condominium in Nice's sought-after Fabron district, this elegant two-bedroom apartment is waiting for its first owner.

Just a short walk from the stunning beaches of the Côte d'Azur, the property has been recently completed and comes with a 10-year legal guarantee, ensuring long-term peace of mind.

A key feature of this apartment is its private, sunlit outdoor space, accessible directly from the living area—an ideal spot for relaxation and entertaining.

With low condominium fees and energy-efficient features, this residence offers a cost-effective and comfortable living environment. The apartment can also be purchased fully furnished for immediate move-in.

THE LAYOUT:

Designed for both comfort and practicality, the apartment boasts a well-optimized rectangular layout, eliminating any wasted space.

The bright living room with an open-plan kitchen serves as the central hub, seamlessly extending to the private garden.

Each of the two bedrooms features its own private shower room, offering convenience and privacy for residents or guests. One of the bedrooms is further enhanced by a spacious walk-in dressing room, adding extra storage and functionality.

THE AREA:

Nestled between Nice's lively city center and the international airport, Fabron is one of the city's most desirable residential districts. Stretching from the Promenade des Anglais to the scenic hills, this area is known for its elegant villas, modern residences, and tranquil Mediterranean atmosphere.
