NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This village property opens into a welcoming layout, with a living room (or downstairs bedroom) situated to the right, complete with a front-facing window that allows natural light to brighten the space. To the left, a similarly bright dining room also looks out to the front of the house, offering a pleasant setting for family meals or entertaining guests. The dining room flows through to a functional kitchen room which needs a kitchen fitting, which in turn leads to a utility room. From here, a back door provides convenient access to a garden courtyard.

Upstairs, the home offers three bedrooms and a family bathroom, as well as an attic space above. A unique feature of the property is a bridge on the first floor that connects directly to the garden, adding character and practicality. Within the garden, there is a workshop and a garage, providing ample space for storage, hobbies, or potential renovation projects.

The property is in need of modernisation throughout and currently lacks a heating system and kitchen, but it is already connected to mains water, electricity, and drainage, offering a solid foundation for improvement.

Located in the heart of the Dordogne, the property is in the small town of La Coquille. This friendly town offers a range of amenities including shops, a supermarket, restaurants, a train station with direct connections to Limoges and Périgueux, as well as a local market and various community events. Surrounded by beautiful countryside and with easy access to...
