IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of Montcuq, within walking distance of all amenities, this fenced and gated property offers a fantastic opportunity. Originally built in 1997 and extended in 2002, the home features five bedrooms, two spacious living rooms, and two bathrooms, providing generous living space. While the property requires some updating, including necessary attention to existing cracks due to past movement, it presents great potential for transformation. With its desirable location and ample space, this is an excellent chance to create a personalized home in a sought-after area.
