IN BRIEF

Nestled in a tranquil hamlet, midway between the sought-after villages of Lauzerte and Montcuq, this beautiful property offers a unique opportunity to create your dream home. The main house, along with a collection of characterful outbuildings—including a traditional pigeonier, multiple spacious barns, and a charming well—all showcase the timeless appeal of Quercy stone.

With breathtaking views over the picturesque valleys and surrounding countryside, the setting is nothing short of idyllic. The property is already habitable and structurally sound, providing a solid foundation for a full renovation. The outbuildings offer incredible scope for various projects, from guest accommodations to creative studios (subject to planning permission).

This is a rare opportunity to invest in a property brimming with potential, situated in an exceptional location that perfectly balances peace, natural beauty, and convenient access to nearby villages.
