DESCRIPTION

Set in its own grounds in the heart of the sought-after village of Villeneuve-Minervois, this versatile property combines charm with comfort. Offering a 5-bedroom main residence, a beautifully converted guest house, and extensive additional spaces for creative or business ventures, it presents a rare opportunity in the scenic Minervois wine region.

The main house retains many original features—marble flooring, a stylish Art Deco staircase, and classic quarry tiles. The ground floor includes a spacious living room (34m²) with stone fireplace, a fitted kitchen/dining area (26m²), a utility room with w.c., and a ground-floor double bedroom (13.5m²) with marble fireplace and patio access. Sliding doors lead to a small rear patio with built-in BBQ

Upstairs, a generous landing leads to four bedrooms (ranging from 8.4m² to 16.6m²), all with built-in wardrobes, a large family bathroom, additional shower room, and separate w.c. The attic floor (110m²), already fitted with windows and radiators, offers excellent potential for further living space.

The stone guest house, a former winery, features a stunning first floor 120m² open-plan living space with exposed beams, wood-burning stove, modern kitchen, and partitioned bedroom with ensuite bathroom. French doors open onto a 27m² veranda overlooking the garden—perfect for sunset dining. The ground floor (120m²) includes a laundry room and could be transformed into a studio, gallery, or wellness center.

Adjacent to the main house is a double garage and wood store. Above is a bright 92m² studio/workshop with 4m beamed ceilings and a woodburner, ideal for artistic or remote...
