IN BRIEF

A unique opportunity to acquire a property within the maintained park of the Chateau de Charras, walking distance from a bakery, village shop with post office facilities, hairdresser and bar/resto. To-date the owner has designed the property of 100m² to the right handside to be a 3 bedroom 2 bathroom (one being ensuite) however he has added the central part which at this stage would allow the new owner to either redesign the entire project: ending with a house of 200m² or continue as is and then develop the centre property as an maison d'ami or property to let. There are 2 entrances to house either via the park or vis the village. The park of the chateau is well run, with a large well-maintained heated pool for all owners and their guests and a...

DESCRIPTION

Although the property does not have any official outside space - each house has use of the space which is in front of the house and the lawn beyond - as this is off to one side there is basically no people passage and is of huge benefit as the estate looks after the grass and plants.

28kms from the dynamic town of Angoulême, with fun festivals and the fast train linking Bordeaux and Paris making national and international travel extremely easy. 10mins from market town of Marthon and 16kms from Villebois Lavalette.
