NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Step into history and experience the rare charm of a place where time seems to stand still. Set on the ground floor of the magnificent Château de Léran – a 13th-century fortress beautifully reimagined in the 19th century in neo-Gothic style – this 150 m² apartment offers timeless character, comfort, and the elegance of French château living.

The property includes a spacious living-dining room, a separate kitchen, two bedrooms, a mezzanine, a bathroom, two WCs, and a cellar. Residents also enjoy exclusive access to the château's grand medieval salle des armes, a beautifully landscaped park, a swimming pool, and two private tennis courts.

A short walk away lies the turquoise Lake Montbel, ideal for swimming, sailing, or peaceful nature walks. Just 15 minutes away, the picturesque medieval town of Mirepoix enchants with its timber-framed arcades, local markets, and vibrant atmosphere.

For longer getaways, Spain is just an hour's drive, and Toulouse-Blagnac International Airport is 1.5 hours away — making this haven of tranquillity remarkably well connected.

A rare opportunity to embrace the art of French living, surrounded by nature, culture, and the romance of history.
