IN BRIEF

Located on the edge of open countryside, this spacious villa offers the best of stylish city dwelling with easy access to the historic centre of Chambery and the autoroutes to Geneva, Lyon, Grenoble and Albertville. Being so close to the centre, expect a little road noise at key moments of the day but otherwise it's the perfect compromise between convenient city life and country pursuits on the doorstep plus easy access to both the Bauges and Chartreuse national parks.

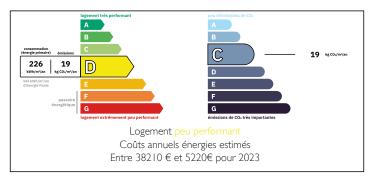

Built in 1968 with generous proportions, the south facing property was renovated by the current owners and extended in 2010. Heating is via a heat pump with a back-up oil fired boiler. The property has a 1000m2 plot with electric gated entry and a mature garden including a magnificent wisteria on the balcony. Gravel parking area with a...
