NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Charming Waterfront Residence in Historic L'Isle-Adam (1930)

Enjoying an exclusive island situation with uninterrupted views of the Oise, this character-filled detached residence sits in a peaceful cul-de-sac rich with history, on the site of what was once a Priory. Built in 1930, this 2-bedroom property combines riverside tranquility with remarkable convenience, just a short walk from the train station (Paris in 50 minutes), and the vibrant town center of L'Isle-Adam with its popular market held three times weekly on Sundays, Tuesdays, and Fridays. The town also boasts an array of shops, restaurants, and the leisure beach that has long been central to L'Isle-Adam's reputation.

Accommodation

The ground floor welcomes you with an entrance hall and guest WC, leading to a dining room and living room featuring an original fireplace, traditional parquet flooring, and period cast iron radiators. The kitchen, while straightforward in design, offers practicality and separate access to the balcony with its splendid views over the Oise.

A handsome oak staircase ascends to the first floor where solid oak parquet continues throughout (with tiles in the bathroom). The landing connects two beautiful bedrooms and a family bathroom with WC.

The lower ground floor provides substantial additional space with two further rooms formerly used as bedrooms; one with a washbasin and the other with a shower room and WC. This level also houses the boiler room, wine cellar, and a generous garage.
