NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The living space of the property is currently all on the ground floor. There is a small kitchen, shower room and a large bedroom at one end of the house with separate entrances - this could easily be used as a studio or gîte.

The beautiful cathedral ceiling living room has a stone fireplace and plenty of light from windows at both sides. The solid wooden staircase leads up to the large attic space (83m2) and this is ideal for the creation of a second floor living area.

The main kitchen leads to a cosy living room with another stone fireplace and exposed wooden beams. This lovely property needs upgrading and the layout rethinking, but the potential is huge!

The garden is flat and laid to lawn. There's a stone barn with two rooms and even more potential. Or it can be used as a garage.

The roof has been redone, as has the exterior walls of the house. The plasterboard ceiling in the living room needs replacing, as it was damaged by a leak before the roof was replaced.

This lovely property has the potential for so much more and is looking for someone to bring it back to life!
