IN BRIEF

Set in parkland at the end of a private driveway, this stone house in a village near Castillonès offers generous volumes, exceptional light and a peaceful setting.

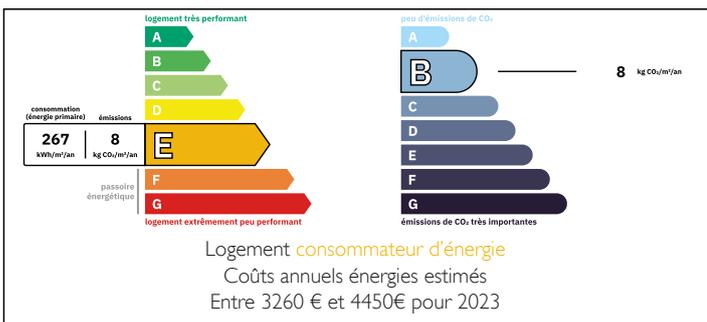

The living room is bright and airy thanks to its large windows overlooking the heated swimming pool, the converted pool house and the summer living area. A chic, functional kitchen, a study, a master bedroom with en suite shower room and a second bedroom complete this level.

Upstairs, two light-filled bedrooms overlook the horse paddock and wooded grounds.

The 17,000 m² grounds are fully enclosed and partly planted with trees, are home to horses and ponies. A 200 m² outbuilding in very good condition, an orchard, two functional wells and a petanque area complete the property.
