DESCRIPTION

Charming Stone Home with Garden & Outbuildings in the Heart of the Dordogne

Nestled in a very picturesque village, this beautifully restored stone and moellon home is full of French character and countryside charm. Located in the sought-after Dordogne region—renowned for its rolling landscapes, local markets, and rich heritage—it's the ideal retreat for second-home buyers or families looking to settle into a peaceful, authentic lifestyle.

Lovingly renovated with respect for its historic roots, the home showcases exposed stone walls, original features, and a welcoming warmth throughout. The ground floor includes an inviting entrance hall leading into a cozy kitchen, a north-facing living room that opens to a tranquil inner courtyard, and a sun-drenched south-facing lounge with direct access to the terrace and lush garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

A corridor connects the living spaces to the kitchen, cellar, and outdoor garden, creating an easy, flowing layout. Upstairs, a wide hallway leads to a dedicated study and three spacious bedrooms—two with private en suite shower rooms—ideal for hosting family and friends in comfort.

Outside, the flower-filled walled garden offers a peaceful oasis with space to unwind and soak in the Dordogne sunshine. The property also features a range of character-rich outbuildings, including a partially convertible wing, a covered open area, a wood shed, a former pigsty, a stone garage, and a rustic old shed—offering endless possibilities for creative projects, guest accommodations, or workshop space.
