DESCRIPTION

Set right on the river's edge in the picturesque village of Bize-Minervois, this charming home blends ancient history with inviting, comfortable living. Built from the original village walls, the house boasts thick stonework, unique character, and bright, airy rooms throughout.

Spread over three floors, the ground level features a cozy living room, a kitchen, a dining room ideal for indoor/outdoor gatherings, a laundry room, a guest toilet, and a spacious storage room. Two staircases lead to the first floor, where three large bedrooms and two bathrooms offer a perfect combination of space and style, many with stunning river views.

Continuing upwards, the second floor mirrors the layout with two more generous bedrooms and two additional bathrooms, perfect for family or guests. At the very top, a charming attic room provides a versatile space that could easily serve as a home office, creative studio, or an extra bedroom.

One of the home's standout features is its large garden terrace: a serene green lawn shaded by a beautiful mature tree, offering the ultimate spot to relax and soak in the river views on a sunny afternoon.

Located just steps from local restaurants, cafés, and shops, and situated in one of the most desirable villages in the region, this property offers a rare opportunity to own an enchanting slice of southern France. Whether you're searching for a full-time residence or a perfect holiday escape, this riverside retreat captures the spirit of the Mediterranean lifestyle.
