NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A simply stunning and beautifully presented country house with a large outbuildings, offering immense potential on approximately 1.4 hectares and boasting breathtaking, unobstructed views of the village of Sidiailles in the distance.

The house offers approximately 100 m<sup>2</sup> of living space on the ground floor. The entrance leads directly into the 26 m<sup>2</sup> living/dining room, featuring a fireplace and pellet stove, and huge oak beams. The main room opens onto the kitchen with pantry/utility, then onto a magnificent veranda running across the rear facade, overlooking the immaculate gardens and breathtaking views of the rolling countryside near Lake Sidiailles. At the rear of the house, from the living room, is a double bedroom with a shower room. Direct access to the rear hall offers a second shower room, a toilet, and a second bedroom.

The home is fully double glazed through and heated via the wonderful pellet stove in the main living space and also via electric radiators in the other rooms.

Although there is no full staircase yet, the upper floor offers a fully finished 16 m<sup>2</sup> bedroom, followed by a partially converted 32 m<sup>2</sup> attic, fully insulated and with parquet flooring, which could easily be converted. These two rooms would add 50% more living space to the house.

Outside, the garden is magnificent, with mature trees and shrubs, exceptionally well-kept lawns, and beautifully tiled terraces.

Hard standing parking, two huge barns, and another attached barn (on a separate plot) offer numerous possibilities. The floor space is 95...
