IN BRIEF

The location of this lovely century old mansion full of character can't be beaten!

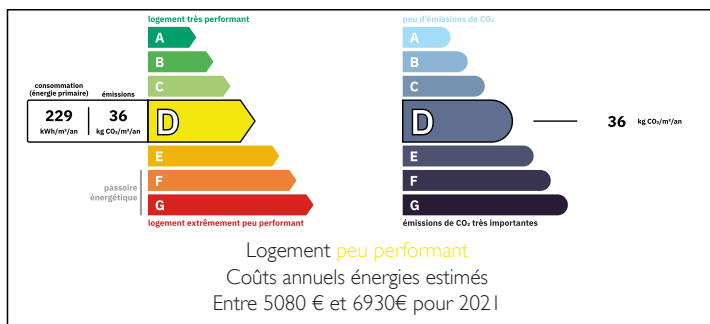

At the end of a hamlet, nestled in lower position against a south facing hillside, which makes that the property is completely hidden for everyone's eye. Completely private!

From its southfacing living rooms and lovely terrace you have a breathtaking view over the hills.

In the ENTRE-DEUX-MERS region - so-called Little Tuscany of France - at a 10 min drive to several little towns with all amenities and weekly markets, 15 min to Saint-Emilion and about 45 min to Bordeaux.

DESCRIPTION

The century old house is as charming as its location! In good condition, with bags of old charme and ancient features! Surrounded by an Italian style garden with romantic fontaine and swimming pool area.

Further there is woodland and a meadow (1.5ha) for 1 or 2 horses, in total over 4 hectares.

The house has a habitable surface of about 250 m², on the ground floor good sized rooms as 2 salons, a dining room, a kitchen, 2 bedrooms with their own bathroom.

The first floor comprises a landing, a large bedroom now used as dormitory, a more decent bedroom, a bathroom and another large bedroom with dressing and bathroom.

There is a lovely heated pool with views over the hills and further a workshop and storage.
