NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Pretty attached cottage in a sleepy village on the edge of the Tronçais Forest.

This large 3 bedroom, 2 shower room house provides comfortable family living in or a wonderful second home or gite in the beautiful Allier countryside.

The property is entered through a small front garden and elevated position over a cellar, to the principle room of 45m² with dual aspect Lounge area with inset pellet stove, large dining area with windows to the front and leading onto the open plan kitchen space with window to the rear. From the dining area a hallway leads to the staircase to the upper floor where there are 3 good sized bedrooms, 2 with dormers to the front and a 3rd with velux to the rear. The upper hall/mezzanine is particularly large and could be a useful seating/reading area or office space. The large tiled shower room completes the rooms upstairs with a double vanity unit sink and large shower with tiled seating space.

back downstairs and to the left of the Lounge are steps down into a large TV room with Laundry, boiler room with sink and a further shower room and separate WC. There is a separate external doorway to this annexe which could be used as an independent space with some reconfiguration.

The doorway to the rear of the property steps down into a pretty level garden with an outside hangar set as an external living space, perfect for outdoor dining. Double gates also...
