NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Traditional, character-filled house in the centre of the village, with its own private garden and above-ground pool. The south-facing property benefits from the abundant sunshine in the south of France, and has lovely views of the Pyrenees in the distance.

It would make a great holiday house, and is sold fully-furnished and ready to use! Alternatively, with some improvements, it could be a comfortable main home, in a friendly village in the Black Mountains, only a short drive from Carcassonne.

You enter the house on the middle floor, where the bright hallway leads to a cosy sitting room and 3 generous-sized bedrooms.

A wooden staircase leads up to the top floor, with distant views of the Pyrenees from all 3 large bedrooms. On this floor there is also a shower room, and a large store room.

From the sitting room a second stairway leads down to the ground floor kitchen / dining room, with French windows to the garden, a living room and a shower room.

There is a covered access from the living room to the barn / garage, and a side door to the street. The garden is fully enclosed with a stone terrace and an above ground pool with decking surround.

Accommodation comprises, on the ground floor:

Kitchen / dining room (44m²) with gas range, freestanding units and island. Brick fireplace with wood-burning stove.

Living room (17m²)

Shower room (5m²) with WC, basin and walk-in shower.

First floor:

Entrance hall (8m²)

Sitting room (14m²)

Bedroom 4 (13m²)
