NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Constructed with Meleze wood throughout, this high-quality six bedroom chalet was constructed by the reputable local constructor Roux. It is built over three-storeys and includes numerous features such as electric underfloor heating on the lower and middle floors and modern conveniences like electric blinds and automatic lighting.

The attention to detail in this chalet is exceptional. In addition to the panoramic windows in the kitchen and TV snug, wherever it's possible to have a view of the mountains or forest, windows have been incorporated into the design of the building. With so much natural light flooding into the house and multiple terrace areas on all sides, the outside and interior space seamlessly blend with one another.

In terms of location, it is conveniently located to access the mountains with a ski bus stop a 10-minute walk away and the Les Carroz telecable just 3.5 km. The nearest boulangerie is only 1.5 km away in Arâches.
