DESCRIPTION

If you've ever dreamed of trading the everyday for sunlit afternoons, market strolls, and life within the walls of a historic château, this might just be your moment.

Set in the heart of the Ariège, in the picturesque village of Lérans, this beautifully appointed 116 m² apartment is part of the majestic Château de Lérans — a place where time slows down and the soul breathes easier.

With two inviting bedrooms, an open-plan living space full of natural light, and a quiet charm that whispers from every stone, this is a home that speaks to those seeking something more meaningful.

Step outside and you'll find over 5 hectares of private parkland, a peaceful swimming pool, and two tennis courts for leisurely afternoons. A few minutes' walk brings you to the turquoise waters of Lac de Montbel — perfect for swimming, sailing or simply doing nothing at all.

Fifteen minutes away, the medieval town of Mirepoix welcomes you with its half-timbered arcades, bustling market and lively cafés. The Pyrenees and Spain lie just beyond, offering mountains, culture and adventure within easy reach. And with an international airport just 90 minutes away, connection and freedom go hand in hand.

This isn't just a home — it's a lifestyle. A chance to live differently, surrounded by beauty, history and tranquility.
