DESCRIPTION

Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a piece of French countryside tranquility, perfectly suited for full-time living, a luxurious vacation home, or a boutique rental venture.

Spring and summer aperos and BBQs on the veranda lead into cozy fall and winter nights enhanced by a pellet stove in the kitchen, a wood-burning stove in the main living room, and another wood burner in the guest house.

The landscaped garden offers a tranquil retreat, featuring lawns, mature trees, flowering shrubs, and vibrant flower beds—all set against sweeping views of the valley and surrounding hills. The grounds provide ample space for a pool installation, while inviting seating areas create perfect spots to relax, take in the breathtaking scenery, and enjoy the peaceful sounds of nature.

The property is accessed from the small rural road by a gravel driveway leading to a gravel courtyard area framed by the house and gite. The car port/garage can take 2 cars.
