IN BRIEF

This beautifully renovated 4-bedroom stone house is located in the quiet hamlet of Allemans, just 10 minutes from Ribérac, known for one of the best open-air markets in the Dordogne. Full of charm, the home offers a perfect blend of traditional character and modern comfort, featuring exposed stone walls, original beams, and bright, airy living spaces.

Set in a small hamlet on a peaceful hilltop with little passing traffic and friendly neighbors, the house enjoys a mature, well-maintained garden with open views of the surrounding countryside. There are three attractive terraces, ideal for relaxing or entertaining outdoors, along with a well which is useful for watering the many plants and shrubs.

While the property does not currently have a pool, there is room to install one. The home also offers private parking for several vehicles.
