DESCRIPTION

From the minute you walk through the door this property gives you a feeling of being home . The front entrance door leads directly in a traditional farmhouse style kitchen complete with log burning stove , butler sink and space to seat 8-10 people and not forgetting the original beams and hidden copper chimney breast !

Two doors offering versatility lead into a lounge/dining room which used to be the bakery shop.

Also from the kitchen you proceed to the hallway and take the original curved staircase to the upper floor. A further door leads you to the downstairs shower room , access to the covered terrace area, garage and a room which houses the original ovens from the bakery and doubles up as a utility space currently.

Once on the first floor a large open landing leads to bedroom 3/study space, Bedroom 2, Bedroom 1 and a full height beamed room with exposed stone walls which could easily be converted to provide a master bedroom with ensuite. There is access to a partially boarded loft space also.

From the covered terrace you can access the garden space and log store. The garden has a stoned walled dining space with steps leading to the main area, for maintenance the garden is stoned but could easily be lawned or patio ed, the garden offers complete privacy and quiet.
