NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the peaceful village of Sahorre, just a short distance from the renowned spa town of Vernet-les-Bains, this remarkable property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a successful and fully operational hospitality business in one of the most beautiful corners of the Pyrénées-Orientales.

Ideally positioned between the sea and the mountains, in a secluded rural setting yet within easy reach of all amenities, the property enjoys breathtaking mountain views and a truly tranquil atmosphere.

Currently run as a thriving gîte and B&B (chambres d'hôtes) business, the estate includes a total of 14 bedrooms and 13 bathrooms across several distinct and beautifully maintained residences.

The main house, the ground floor offers a spacious reception room, dining room, fully equipped kitchen with two ovens, dishwashers and gas hobs, laundry room and gym. It accommodates five elegant en-suite guest rooms, providing comfortable and welcoming B&B accommodation.

A newly renovated independent apartment offers two bedrooms and a bright, modern living space, while a second, larger independent apartment includes five bedrooms, stunning views from every window, and access to the beautifully maintained garden.

In addition, the property features two detached gîtes full of character: one with a single bedroom and a private terrace overlooking the pool and mountain backdrop, and the other, slightly larger, also with one bedroom and a spacious private terrace offering uninterrupted views across the valley.

The entire property is being sold fully furnished and equipped, allowing immediate operation and offering highly flexible usage. It is perfectly suited for...
