IN BRIEF

A haven of peace in stone and greenery:

Let yourself be charmed by the authenticity of this stone house nestled in the commune of Le Fieu, just 5 minutes from Saint-Seurin-sur-l'Isle and all its amenities, or from Coutras.

As soon as you step through the gates, you'll discover a magnificent facade steeped in history, set in over 2 hectares of parkland.

With around 230 m² of living space spread over two levels, this property offers generous volumes that invite you to feel at home.

DESCRIPTION

On the first floor, light floods into the living areas. The spacious 35 m² kitchen opens onto a 39 m² multi-purpose room, currently used as a games room. The 40 m² living room will seduce you with its large bay windows offering direct access to the garden and terrace, perfect for relaxing moments. An office, a large laundry/boiler room and a separate toilet complete this level.

Upstairs, the sleeping area offers four bedrooms, including a master suite with en suite bathroom and toilet, plus an additional shower room.

The outbuildings are a real asset: an adjoining 40 m² outbuilding offers the possibility of creating an additional space as you wish (bedroom, office or even a small studio). A spacious 120 m² barn is ideal for storing your vehicles, including a camper van.

The grounds of over 2 hectares, mostly meadows but also wooded, are a haven of unspoilt nature. A small pond at the back of the property is perfect for watering your animals or simply contemplating biodiversity.

This house is a real invitation to serenity and a privileged daily life. Don't miss the opportunity to discover this place.
