NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Le Chesnay-Rocquencourt is a highly sought-after municipality in the Yvelines department, ideally located just 20 kilometers west of Paris. This green, residential town of nearly 30,000 inhabitants offers an exceptional quality of life, representing the perfect balance between suburban tranquility and urban dynamism.

The town is distinguished by its remarkable natural heritage, featuring numerous carefully maintained parks and green spaces. Its immediate proximity to the Château de Versailles estate and its gardens, listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site, constitutes a genuine privilege for residents who can enjoy this prestigious historical setting on a daily basis.

The Parly 2 regional shopping center, a true institution since 1969 and one of Europe's largest commercial complexes, represents a major economic asset with its 250 shops, department stores, restaurants, cinemas and various services. This dynamic commercial hub generates constant activity and provides all daily services in the immediate vicinity.

In terms of transportation, Le Chesnay benefits from exceptional connectivity with the Versailles-Chantiers RER C station just minutes away, allowing residents to reach central Paris in 35 minutes. Several RATP bus lines and the Phébus network complement this offering, while direct access to the A86 and A13 motorways facilitates car travel to Paris and throughout the Île-de-France region.

Families particularly appreciate the remarkable quality of educational establishments, from kindergarten to high school, as well as the exceptional richness of local cultural offerings including media libraries, conservatories, theaters and cultural centers. Sports facilities are equally impressive with numerous modern facilities, clubs and associations...
