NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The expansive, mature garden is a standout feature – quiet, secluded, and full of charm. Box hedges, a romantic wisteria-covered alley, and a variety of mature trees create an enchanting atmosphere, while the lovely pool area invites relaxed outdoor living. There is ample space for parking multiple vehicles discreetly behind the gates, making it practical as well as peaceful.

Inside, the house is equally generous and welcoming, offering 210m2 of living space. The ground floor centres around a vast 80m² open-plan living, dining, and entrance space, cleverly zoned and full of light, with large openings onto the terrace and garden. The layout is ideal for entertaining or quiet enjoyment of the beautiful surroundings. A separate, fully equipped kitchen and utility room also open onto the terrace, providing excellent indoor-outdoor flow.

The ground floor also features a spacious parental suite with garden access, comprising a spacious bedroom with French doors, a large ensuite bathroom, and a dressing room. There is also a guest WC and access to the garage, making it entirely possible to live comfortably on one level.

Upstairs are three further bedrooms and a shared shower room – perfect for family or guests.

This is a home of space, light, and thoughtful design – embracing its unique garden setting from every angle. Just 6km from Clermont l'Hérault, 35km from Montpellier, and within easy reach of Lake Salagou and the coast (under 30 minutes), it offers the perfect balance of tranquillity, accessibility, and lifestyle.

A rare and surprising opportunity...
