DESCRIPTION

With double glazing and gas central heating, this detached house is perfectly habitable but could benefit from upgrading and redecoration throughout.

In addition, there is a cellar and loft space which could be further developed offering further living space.

The main entrance opens to a large fully fitted kitchen with bedroom to the side, rear hallway to a further bedroom and bathroom down a small set of stairs. From the other side of the kitchen you enter a 25m² lounge with staircase to the upper floor which has a huge 29m² bedroom suite with bathroom facilities at the far end.

Back to the kitchen and further doorway opens to a stairwell down to a large cellar space and backdoor to the garden. the staircase also rises via a hatch to a large 10.3m² room which could easily be converted into another bedroom.

From the lounge with the staircase - the longere continues with a huge living space of 45m² with a further mezzanine area and double patio doors to the front into a terrace area. Beyond there is a further bedroom of 16.3m².

Gardens to the front and back of the property with a well in the front garden and sheds to the side.
