NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Behind a gated entrance, the property welcomes you with a gravel driveway leading to the front door. Inside, is an open-plan fitted kitchen and living area, complete with space for a family dining table. At one end of the home, is the main bedroom, while a door off the kitchen leads to a bathroom with shower, a separate WC, and a second bedroom, currently used as a dining room.

A large, sunny area outside the front door offers excellent potential for a substantial patio—perfect for al fresco dining. The front garden features established trees and shrubs, with plenty of scope to enhance it further with flower beds along the length of the property.

To the rear, the garden is laid to lawn, dotted with mature trees and edged with space for flower borders—an ideal haven for gardening enthusiasts. Nestled at one end is the recently renovated summerhouse, offering a peaceful hideaway or a fun and cozy place to sleep during warm summer nights.

Torcé-Viviers-en-Charnie lies 40 km west of Le Mans, with its historic centre, 24-Hour race circuit, and high-speed rail links to Paris. To the east, the riverside town of Laval offers access to Rennes and Brittany, while nearby Sainte-Suzanne, one of the most beautiful medieval towns in France, is just 7 km away. The Normandy coast is within reach at 178 km, with regular ferry services to the UK, and international airports in Tours, Rennes, and Paris provide convenient global access.

This is a wonderful opportunity...
