NOTES

DESCRIPTION

At the end of a tree-lined driveway, nestled in a carefully maintained haven of greenery, stands this charming, typically Norman country home. Located in Croixdalle, between Rouen and Dieppe, it offers the perfect blend of authenticity, space, and serenity — just minutes from all amenities in Londinières.

With approximately 150 m² of living space, the house opens onto a cosy and welcoming interior. The living room, the true heart of the home, invites relaxation with its large brick fireplace and exposed beams, creating a warm and character-filled atmosphere. The property features 8 rooms, including 3 bedrooms with built-in storage and 3 bathrooms — ideal for comfortably hosting family or guests in search of peace and quiet.

But the true magic lies outdoors: the nearly 20,000 m² of land offers an exceptional setting. A tree-filled garden, a picturesque pond, and wide open grassy fields — currently maintained by a neighbouring farmer — make this property perfect for an equestrian project, pony club, or simply enjoying unspoiled nature with no overlooking neighbours.

With its rustic charm, generous space, absolute tranquillity, and proximity to the coast, this property is a rare gem. Whether you're dreaming of a peaceful rural lifestyle, a tourist hospitality venture, or a home for your horses — this place is ready to make it real.
