NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the historic main square of Saint-Savin, Vienne, this exceptional mixed-use property offers 242m² of versatile living and professional space, complemented by a separate two-bedroom residence. Perfectly positioned near the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Saint-Savin Abbey, this property is ideal for investors, families, or those seeking a characterful home with rental potential.

The main building spans three floors, blending commercial and residential possibilities. The ground floor features a corridor, boiler room, entrance hall, hallway, two WCs, two offices, and a laboratory, ideal for professional use or conversion (subject to permissions). The first floor offers a spacious apartment with a kitchen, bathroom, WC, dining room/lounge, and three bedrooms, perfect for family living. The second floor houses two apartments: a T2 attic flat with a living room, bedroom, bathroom, and WC, and a T3 flat with a living room, two bedrooms, bathroom, and WC. The third floor includes an additional living room, bedroom, bathroom, and WC, offering further flexibility for rentals or extended family.

A separate residence adds even more value, featuring a ground-floor living room, hallway, bathroom, WC, and boiler room, with a landing and two bedrooms upstairs. The property is enhanced by a pleasant garden, perfect for relaxation or outdoor activities, and a basement cellar for ample storage. Information about local risks is available on the G  orisques website.

Located in the heart of Saint-Savin, this property enjoys unparalleled access to shops, restaurants, schools, and the cultural allure of the abbey's frescoes. Just minutes from Montmorillon's amenities and...
