NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This property is a rare find, nestled at the end of a quiet lane that leads exclusively to the house, ensuring complete privacy with no passing traffic. The gravel courtyard at the front provides ample parking and is surrounded by established trees, perfectly framing the stunning views of the open countryside beyond—an impressive first impression.

To the side of the main house is a two-storey cottage in need of renovation. It boasts a solid roof but will require a full refurbishment throughout.

Upon entering the main property, you step into a spacious and light-filled entrance hallway. (45m²) ,With its tiled floors, exposed beams, and a wood-burning stove, this area feels more like a welcoming living space than a simple entrance. The adjacent dining area,(10m²), showcases original exposed beams, which remain a striking focal point despite the removal of the original wall. A sweeping staircase leads up to a mezzanine on the first floor.

Double doors open into the large salon,(35.25m²), which features a big fireplace with a wood-burning stove, abundant natural light from dual aspects, and tiled floors—creating a comfortable and inviting space.

On the opposite side of the hallway, the breakfast room,(8m²), connects seamlessly to a modern fitted kitchen with an island, which then leads through to the laundry and pantry rooms,(8m²),. The ground floor also includes a contemporary shower room,(6.70m²), equipped with a vanity unit and WC.

Upstairs, the beautiful mezzanine,(36m²), houses a dedicated office area. The first floor accommodates five double bedrooms,(12.65m² ,13.22m² ,15.32m² ,10.18m²), all...
