NOTES

DESCRIPTION

You enter into an open plan living area. The fully fitted kitchen has plenty of storage and sits next to the dining area where you can look out onto the garden. The sitting room has a central fireplace with a woodburning stove and original oak beams give plenty of character. A handy utility room with extra storage and a WC are also located on this floor. A pretty oak staircase leads you to the landing where you will find 2 bedrooms. Both have space for furniture and are light and airy spaces. This house comes with the luxury of 2 bathrooms too. One has a bath with overhead shower, wash basin and wc. The second has a walk in shower with wash basin and wc. The outside space is delightful and a real secluded sun trap. Two terraces are the ideal spaces to entertain and enjoy the French apéro along with al fresco dining! There are two storage sheds ideal for housing garden furniture, tools etc. A large garage/workshop is an excellent space to be used for many things. Storage, games room, garage, workspace, hobby room, gym, studio... the choice is yours! The property comes with outside parking too. Walking distance to all shops and amenities and a great central location for visiting the coast, surrounding medieval towns like Fougères, market towns and country villages.
