IN BRIEF

Splendid 19th-century building.

Located in a small hamlet nestled among the Cognac vineyards, this vast property will delight lovers of heritage, history, and culture, as well as those seeking to create an exceptional place.

Access to the house is via a porch leading into the kitchen with fireplace or through the main entrance in the center, which opens to the left onto a dining room and to the right onto a living room with fireplace and a small bedroom; then a boiler room.

The wide curved staircase conceals a toilet, then leads to the first floor where a large landing serves two huge bedrooms of 33 m² each.

On the second floor, accessed by the same beautiful staircase, are two convertible attic spaces totaling 85 m².

On its right wing, the property houses beautiful
